His early life was marked by a voracious appetite for learning and a natural inclination towards computers, a technology that was still in its nascent stages when he was growing up. Raised in Seattle, Washington, with his parents William H. Gates Sr. and Mary Maxwell Gates, young Bill displayed an exceptional intellect from a tender age.

His fascination with computers began in his early teens. He and his childhood friend, Paul Allen, spent countless hours at the Lakeside School's computer terminal, teaching themselves to program. They weren't just playing with machines; they were envisioning a future powered by them.

The founding of Microsoft in 1975, with Paul Allen, at the young age of 19, was the pivotal moment. This wasn't just a startup; it was the genesis of an empire. They initially focused on developing and selling BASIC interpreters for early microcomputers. The rapid advancement of personal computing in the late 1970s and early 1980s provided the fertile ground for Microsoft to flourish.
