Their team of highly skilled ophthalmologists, optometrists, and supporting staff are equipped to handle everything from common refractive errors to intricate surgical

General Ophthalmology and Routine Eye Exams

Preventative care is paramount when it comes to vision. NOAO emphasizes the importance of regular eye examinations, even for those who don't currently experience vision problems. These exams are crucial for detecting early signs of eye diseases like glaucoma, macular degeneration, and diabetic retinopathy, which often have no early symptoms. During a routine eye exam, specialists will assess visual acuity, check for refractive errors (nearsightedness, farsightedness, astigmatism), and screen for common eye conditions. Early detection through these routine visits can significantly improve treatment outcomes and preserve long-term vision health.

Specialized Ophthalmic Care

Beyond general eye care, the New Orleans Academy of Ophthalmology excels in a variety of specialized fields within ophthalmology. This subspecialization allows for highly focused and expert treatment of specific conditions. * Cataract Surgery: Cataracts are a leading cause of vision loss, particularly in older adults. Treatment options range from medication and laser therapy to surgical interventions, all tailored to the individual patient's needs. * Retinal Diseases: The retina, the light-sensitive tissue at the back of the eye, is susceptible to various diseases that can threaten vision. The New Orleans Academy of Ophthalmology provides expert care for conditions such as age-related macular degeneration (AMD), diabetic retinopathy, retinal detachments, and macular holes.
