Born to Win: Serena's Early Life and Debut

Serena Jameka Williams was born on September 26, 1981, in Saginaw, Michigan. This date is crucial to understanding her journey. From a very young age, alongside her equally talented sister Venus, Serena was immersed in tennis. Their father, Richard Williams, famously coached them on rudimentary courts in Compton, California, with a vision of them becoming global superstars. And boy, did that vision come to fruition.

Serena turned professional at the tender age of 14, in 1995. Can you imagine? A teenager stepping onto the professional tennis circuit, ready to take on the world's best. This early start is a significant part of why her career has spanned so many years, allowing her to accumulate a record-breaking number of Grand Slam titles.
